

COEP team Nemesis makes hat trick at BAJA SAE Competition 2015.

COEP team Nemesis continues to do record at BAJA competition of designing an all terrain four wheeler vehicle and running on an arduous track in a grueling competition for four hours. The team Nemesis has created hat trick by marking its victory in the competition consecutively for the third year.

Around 120 teams from all over India participated in Baja SAE 2015 competition which was held at Pithampur, Indore from 19th- 22nd February 2015

The team won the Over All Championship along with 8 awards in various other categories.

The total cash prize in all categories won by the team is Rs. 8.65 Lakhs.

The awards won by the team includes:

1. Over all Championship- 1st Place
2. Durability- 1st Place
3. Raftar (Fastest Lap)- 1st Place
4. Acceleration- 1st Place
5. Hill climb- 1st Place
6. Innovation- 2nd place
7. CAE (Computer Aided Engineering)- 2nd place
8. Build Quality- 2nd place
9. Safest Car- 2nd place

Please find below the link for the article about the team's victory in today's Maharashtra Times.

<http://epapermt.timesofindia.com/index.aspx?eid=31835&dt=20150223>